AAVP-ZOETIS ORAL PRESENTATION AWARD

GUIDELINES FOR STUDENTS

Introduction (__/20)

- Does the literature review adequately focus on the problem?
- Is the problem/hypothesis clearly stated and pursued?
- Is the problem of scientific importance?

Experimental Design (__/30)

- Is the experimental design appropriate?
- Are the controls adequate?
- Are the techniques well adapted to the problem?
- Are the data generated adequate?
- Is the maximum use made of the experimental unit?

Results and Conclusions (__/30)

- Is the analysis appropriate?
- Are the results well presented?
- Are the results interpreted correctly?
- Are the conclusions logical?
- Are there novel applications for the results?

Presentation (__/20)

- Is there eye contact, clear delivery, lack of distracting mannerisms?
- Are the slides legible with appropriate use of fonts / colors?
- Is the time limit observed (< 13 minutes)
- Was there time left for questions, and were they adequately answered?

Additional Comments